

The public interest will NOT be served by relaxing the rules allowing consolidation of the media. PLEASE fulfill your function to protect the public interest by defending the diversity of media on which democracy so depends.

The public will not forgive your abandonment of their right to free information. We are angry and dismayed at this further erosion of our rights to know the truth.